Dear Stallholder,

Nepalese Association of Victoria (NAV) is organising its signature event “TEEJ: Celebrating Womanhood” on 21st August 2016 at the Thornbury Theatre. Approximately 650 ladies dressed up in red, colourful saris and glittering jewellery attended the event at Coburg Town Hall last year. Like previous years, NAV is anticipating the same level of participation this year too. Nepal’s popular folk singer KOMAL OLI is set to headline along with a few local performers on the day of the event. NAV is seeking stallholders to take part in this event.

Please find the attached “Expression of Interest” form for NAV TEEJ MELA 2016. Please complete the form and send in your form with all appropriate documentation by 1 July 2016 by email: secretary@nav.org.au.

Please note that incomplete applications or submissions beyond deadline may not be considered. Please note that the submission of an expression of interest does NOT guarantee a stall opportunity at the event. As a community organization, we will like to provide equal opportunity, however, please be advised that NAV reserves the right to approve the selection of the stallholders and the decision of NAV (Event-committee) is deemed to be final.

NAV encourages applications from stallholders who have proven records and relevant experience in providing catering services. Unique menu option will be given high priority. Use of biodegradable and non polystyrene materials is encouraged.

Should you have stall or event enquiries, please call the Event Team on 0430 321 286.

Yours Sincerely,

Dr Anupam Pokharel
NAV President (2016-2018)
